

ULRIKE BREITSPRECHER

EDUCATION

- 01/04/2002 - 30/09/2002 study of Modern History, Medieval History and Sociology at the Friedrich-Schiller University of Jena
- 01/10/2002 start to study of Medieval and Modern History, Sociology and Gender Studies at Georg-August University of Göttingen. 01/10/2003 change to the Institute of Economic- und Socialhistory. 03/2008 Degree Magistra of Arts

PRACTICAL TRAINING

- Voluntary to do coordination and accompaniment of an israeli-german exchange of the DGB-Bildungswerk Thüringen from 14/02/2005 to 25/03/2005
- Voluntary in the Gedenkstätte Buchenwald from 20/02/2006 to 31/03/2006

PROFESSIONAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Research assistance at the Max – Planck – Institute for History from 01/07/2005 to 31/12/2006 in Göttingen
- Since 2008 graduate assistance at the Global and European Studies Institute / University of Leipzig. Coordination of the International Forum / Geschichtswerkstatt Europa
- Publications:
 - book reviews on H-Soz-Kult - webpage
 - „The Significance of Judaism and the Holocaust for the Construction of Identity by Jewish Communists in the Early GDR: Alexander Abusch, Helmut Eschwege, and Leo Zuckermann“, in: Jahrbuch für historische Kommunismusforschung 2010.
 - “‘Prepared for the Communist tomorrow’. Future thinking in the GDR using the example of youth initiation“, in: Jahrbuch für Historische Kommunismusforschung 2012.

